

Friends of Adin Ballou are happy to present
the second annual Adin Ballou Peace Lecture

BREAKING THE CYCLE OF VIOLENCE

BUILDING A CULTURE OF PEACE

Sunday, October 14, 2001 at 7 p.m.

Hopedale Unitarian Parish, 65 Hopedale Street, Hopedale

Friends of Adin Ballou will sponsor the second annual Adin Ballou Peace Lecture on Sunday, October 14, 2001. The speaker will be Elise Boulding.

Elise Boulding is a distinguished Quaker peace activist and scholar. She has been active in peace and peace education organizations since the 1950s. She is professor emeritus of sociology at the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth and former Secretary General of the International Peace Research Association. She is the author of numerous books, including New Agendas for Peace Research: Conflict and Security Reexamined (1992), Building Peace in the Middle East (1994), and Cultures of Peace: The Hidden Side of History (2000).

Friends of Adin Ballou was founded in 1999 to study, preserve, and carry on the legacy of Adin Ballou, nineteenth-century minister, pacifist, reformer, and founder of the Hopedale Community.
