

JUBILEE

CELEBRATE PEACE AND FREEDOM

Sunday JULY 31, 2011 2 to 4 p.m.

When Queen Victoria came to the throne in 1837, she declared a complete Emancipation in the British colonies. The early Hopedale Community gathered each year to commemorate Emancipation 1838 with poems, songs and prayers for the abolition of slavery.

Please arrive early and sign up to read. Bring an outdoor chair or blanket for seating if required.
